The Fort Phil. Kearney Massacre.

ST. LOUIS, March 25.—The Republican's St Joseph special gives the following account of the Fort Phil. Kearney massacre, derived by the Commission from some of the Crow Indians, who received it from the Sioux. The Sioux drew our men out of the fort and killed them. All our men fought like tigers, and could not have been mastered so easily had they not kept so closely together. The combatants were so mixed up that the Indians shot arrows and killed several of their own party. The bravery of our bugler is much admired, he having killed several Indians by beating them on the head with his bugle. They say there were only sixteen Sioux, and four Cheyennes killed on the field, but after they encamped ninety-four warriors died of their wounds, and three hundred others wounded, half of whom they expected would die. One big Sioux chief was among the killed. They mention one man, on a white horse, who cut off an Indian's head with a single stroke of his sabre, and they say when reinforcements left for the battle field, they, the Indians, left, having had enough fighting. There were 2,200 Indians engaged in the fight, and the strength of the concentrated tribes is reported at 2,800 lodges, which are now moving towards the Yellow Stone and Missouri rivers.

Mr. COVODE offered a resolution instructing the Committee on Public Expenditures to inquire whether any legislation was necessary to secure the prompt payment of bounties to soldiers, under the law, looking to an increase in the clerical force in the Second Auditor's office. The resolution was adopted.

Mr. BUTLER called the attention of the members to the fact that Mr. Bingham had revised and altered and materially changed the Globe reporter's manuscript of the personal debate last week between himself and Mr. Bingham.

Mr. BUTLER then laid on the desk of the members a printed pamphlet, showing the report as written and the report as printed. He characterized this proceeding as most unfair. In defense of his own assertion made the other day, that Mrs. Surratt was hung without sufficient evidence, he charged that John Wilkes Booth's diary, which showed all his movements preparatory to the assassination of Mr. Lincoln, was kept from the knowledge of the Court, and now it appeared it had been spoliated by having eighteen pages cut out, after it got into the hands of Government. He said there is still remaining in the diary a remarkable instance within few hours before Booth's death, and quoted from memory, as follows: "I have endeavored to cross the Potomac five times and failed. I propose to return to Washington and give myself up and clear myself from this great crime." He contended that this piece of evidence would have shown in his judgment the whole case. It now shows that Booth up to a certain hour meant the capture and abduction of Lincoln, and that he changed his purpose and resorted to assassination. If Mrs Surratt did not know of this change she would have had no knowledge of the intended assassination, and therefore could not have been convicted. If all the testimony had been presented at the trial we should have been able to pursue the accomplices and find out who it was that changed Booth's purpose from capture to assassination; who it was that was to profit by assassination and that would not profit by capture of Lincoln: who it was that should succeed Lincoln in case the assassin's bullet made a vacancy.

Mr. BINGHAM replied: In the excitement and hurry at the time, it so happened that the report of my reply to the gentleman was the most imperfect report of remarks ever sent to me of any remarks made by me in this House. Any gentleman may examine it and will fail to find in the corrections a single accusation that is not by express words or by necessary implications in the reporter's notes. I defy his calumny. What change is he complaining of? That I said he had condemned without knowing or caring for evidence. I say so yet. If he is the lawyer he is reputed to be, then he is to be pitied for coming here and arraigning his peers for not consenting to admit the testimony of a man accused made after the fact. I defy him, by any investigation which he dares to institute, here or anywhere else, to show that any communication came into my hands, purporting to be the production of J. Wilkes Booth, that was not made after the fact, and long after the fact. Is there any lawyer in America or England who would say the words and declarations of an accused felon after the fact, is evidence, which the Advocate of the Government is bound to admit in any court! I treat with contempt and scorn any intimation from any quarter, that I or my associate counsel, were under obligation to admit any such evidence; the law does not require it. The common law, the growth and gathered wisdom of a thousand years, excludes it. Perhaps that great monument of wisdom and learning is not equal to the incomparable genius of the incomparable hero of Fort Fisher. (Laughter, which the Speaker attempted to suppress.)

Mr. BUTLER tried to get in a remark here, but Mr. BINGHAM would not let him, adding that the gentleman from Massachusetts had no right to ask favors at his hands.

Mr. BINGHAM continued: I never saw any memoranda by J. Wilkes Booth which indicated any plan or motive by which he was to carry out his projected conspiracy; I never saw any such thing, and I am not surprised that the gentleman would not let me see the book which he put into his pocket.

Mr. BUTLER again essayed to make an explanation, but with no better result.

Mr. BINGHAM: said No, sir, I don't care about it. Having refused to let me see the book on which he based his charge, he may now imitate the example seen in the vision of the apocalypse and turn round and eat it. (Laughter.) The gentleman talks of a spoliated book. Who did it? That is about as interesting an inquiry as that which I referred to the other day. Who killed Cock Robin? Who knows that it is spoliation if John Wilkes Booth tore the pages out of it? Was that spoliation? The gentleman's words are as impotent as they are unwarranted. "Let the galled jade wince, my withers are unwrung." I challenge him and dare him, here or anywhere in this tribunal, to assert that I spoliated any book. Such a charge as that, without a tittle of evidence, is only fit to come from a man who lives in a bottle and is fed with a spoon. (Laughter.) What is the other statement here, showing the heartlessness of this accusation? It is an utter disregard and contempt for all decencies and for all law. It is that I controlled the evidence in the Court. The gentleman knows that I was not the official organ of that Court. He knows its recorder was the Judge Advocate General of the United States, and yet I am to be at fault because I did not overrule the official organ of the Court. The gentleman has undertaken a task entirely beyond his powers, and only proves in this thing, which he has undertaken to do, that the executors of the War, on his part, in this instance, as in others, is by no means up to the high and sounding manifest. (Laughter.) Let the gentleman read the argument on that subject, and let him show wherein it is false, corrupt, malicious, or unjust.

Mr. BUTLER tried to make a brief explanation, but Mr. PIKE and others objected.

Mr. HAMILTON WARD asked leave to offer a resolution reciting Montgomery Blair's declaration that Mrs. Surratt was improperly convicted, and Mr. Butler's declaration to the same effect, and directing the Judiciary Committee to inquire into the matter. Objections made and the House refused to suspend rules to let it be offered.

Mr. NIBBLOCK introduced a joint resolution in reference to the sale of marine hospital at Evansville, Indiana. Passed.

Mr. BOUTWELL, from the Judiciary Committee reported back Mr. Donnelly's bill in reference to the payment of members, with a substitute, providing that Senators, members and delegates, having taken the oath, shall be entitled to receive their compensation monthly. The substitute was agreed to and the bill passed.

Mr. ELDRIDGE, from the Judiciary Committee, reported a joint resolution declaring the meaning of the second section of the act of March 2d, 1861, relating to property lost in the military service. Passed.

Mr. LAWRENCE, (Ohio,) from the Judiciary Committee, reported a resolution directing the Secretary of the Interior to withhold the issuing of patents affecting the title of the ranche grants in California. Passed.

The SPEAKER presented a letter from the Clerk of the House stating that he had furnished the Secretary of State with the supplementary reconstruction act and had been informed the Secretary would promulgate it.

Mr. BOUTWELL reported a bill making the office of Solicitor of the Court of Claims a bureau, in the office of Attorney General. Passed.

The Senate amendments to the House bill to increase the force in the Patent Office, was concurred in.

The Senate amendments to the House joint resolution, relative to the claims of certain northern creditors, was referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Nominations Acted Upon.

THE ADJOURNMENT QUESTION.

WASHINGTON, March 26, 1867.

NOMINATIONS CONFIRMED AND REJECTED.

The Senate to-day confirmed the following nominations:

Register of Land Office—W. S. Winfield, Ironton, Missouri; Receivers of Public Money—J. Redd, Ironton, Mo., John E. Phelps, Springfield, Missouri. Also, a number of brevet appointments in the army, including those of officers deceased.

The Senate rejected the following:

Postmaster—T. P. Metter, Rolla, Mo; Receiver of Public Money—Caleb B. Clements, Denver, Col; Register of Land Office—Samuel Kneeland, Springfield, Mo.

ADJOURNMENT QUESTION.

It is stated on good authority, that the caucus which induced the Senate to recall its resolution for adjournment until December, and which likewise shaped the action of the House to-day on this subject, were intimations from General Grant and Secretary Stanton, that it might be injurious to the progress of reconstruction, under the military bill, for Congress to adjourn until December without provision for coming together in the meantime if necessary. Trouble is also anticipated in Maryland during the sitting of the Convention which is to frame a new Constitution for the State. Prominent Radicals of Maryland have been asking aid from Congress.

MONTANA BONDS RECOVERED.

Information was received to-day that the Montana bonds, supposed to have been lost in the Southern hotel, New York, have been recovered.

FROM THE SOUTH.

John Minor Botts Snubbed—The Negro Vote—Gen. Sheridan to Remove Mayor Monroe—The Grand Army of the Republic in Session—Outrages in North Carolina.

NEW YORK, March 26.—The Herald's Richmond correspondence says: John Minor Botts recently called upon General Schofield and gave some advice regarding the manner in which the new powers delegated to the General, as Commander of the District, should be applied. No reply was vouchsafed to him, however and he left, feeling himself snubbed.

The press are all turning their attention to securing the negro vote, and Hunnicutt's paper warns the colored people against voting for rebels. In Louisiana similar efforts are being made by the politicians who, a month ago, were defiantly bent on not voting at all if the negro did and their late leaders did not. Now they call upon their leaders to sacrifice themselves, and the negroes to vote with their old masters and best friends.

The first act of General Sheridan under his new authority, it is reported, will be the removal of Mayor Monroe and the secession municipal government. Governor Wells and the General, who have been enemies since the riots, have resumed amicable relations.

The Grand Army of the Republic, an association of discharged Federal soldiers, numbers over seven thousand men in two parishes of the State alone, and is extending all over the State.

Accounts of lawless outrages in North Carolina are still reported.

FROM CHARLESTON, S. C.

Republican Ratification Meeting at Charleston—Torchlight Procession by Negroes—Street Cars Attacked—Trouble Apprehended.

CHARLESTON, S. C., March 25.—A mass meeting to ratify the Republican platform lately adopted by the Union League was held this afternoon. Four or five thousand negroes, of both sexes and all ages, were present. Four white and several colored speakers delivered addresses of a radical character. Among the white speakers were United States Marshal Epping and Solon Robinson, of the New York Tribune. The meeting was followed by a negro torch-light procession. To-night the negroes made several attacks on the street cars and took possession of one of them. The cars are now guarded by policemen. Considerable excitement prevails throughout the city and there are grave apprehensions of further trouble.

THE FENIANS.

Stephens in Paris—He is Ignorant of the Uprising in Ireland—The "Opinione Nationale" on the Fenian Movement.

NEW YORK, March 26.—The Paris correspondent of the London Sunday Gazette says that Stephens and a number of American officers are in Paris. They are quite innocent of the rising in Ireland, which took them by surprise.

The Opinione Nationale, of Paris, has an article on the Fenian movement, in which it hints that the United States Government connived at the rebellion, in the interest of Russia, as a means of embarrassing England at a critical moment of her diplomacy on the Eastern question.

Break in the Levee at Laconia Circle Arkansas.

MEMPHIS, March 26.—The levee at Laconia Circle, Arkansas, broke a few days since, and the inhabitants generally came here, being compelled to leave. The city authorities have chartered the Northwest to carry supplies to the sufferers along the river, and the Chamber of Commerce has appointed a committee to collect supplies.

ST. JOSEPH, MO., March 26.—Rain and snow and a heavy sleet fell last night. To-day the weather has been clear and warm.

Snow Storm in the West.

MILWAUKEE, March 26.—A heavy snow storm prevailed west and north and northwest to-day. The McGregor and Western Railroads of Iowa are blocked up entirely. No trains are running. The other roads are all right. It is storming still.

Amusements.

TEMPERANCE MATINEE.—This afternoon the monster matinee announced for the benefit of Pittsburgh Division 42, of the Sons of Temperance will take place. A fine piece, with the characters admirably cast, is announced. The entertainment will open with "Miriam's Crime," and close with "Toodles" the unapproachable, while a magnificent ode will be recited between the pieces. The proceeds of the entertainment will be kindly bestowed on the Division to aid in furnishing the new hall. Let the house be crowded, good weather or bad.

OPERA HOUSE.—Emilie Melville's success in Pittsburgh is always a sure thing. There is a delightful freshness and naturalness about her acting that is sure to attract all lovers of the drama, and to charm all whom it attracts. Last evening, notwithstanding the discouraging weather, the house was exceedingly well filled to witness the beautiful star shine in the "Pride of the Market" and the "Swiss Swains." The "Pearl of Savoy" is on the bill for to-night. No danger but that the house will be full.

VARIETIES THEATRE.—Miss Florence Temple and her admirably trained horse Frefly, draw crowds at the Varieties, and the enthusiasm manifested proves that the crowd feel exceedingly well paid for coming. The company at the house support the star well, and the whole entertainment is a credit to the management.

Some Country Women took their babies to a ball at Alliance Ohio, young men tending the babies while the mothers danced onesett. They changed the clothes of all the youngsters, so that each mother took the wrong baby home. Mothers who took boy babies to the ball found that they had brought girl babies home. Consternation in a dozen households. It took two days to regulate mothers.

Why Not Arrested?—A correspondent pertly writes: "The conviction of Adlington, of Butler county, is not the only surprising feature in the case. On the trial it was shown that others armed with deadly weapons were in the fight, and if not principals, they were certainly accessories to the murder, and as such should be arrested and placed upon trial."

ALLEGHENY COUNCILS.

A Protest Against Consolidation—Sewerage Assessments Question.

A special meeting of the Councils of Allegheny City was held on Tuesday evening.

COMMON COUNCIL.

Members present—Messrs. Dunham, Drennan, Falhauber, Hanna, Ingham, Kirkpatrick, Megraw, McDonald, McNeil, Reed, Smith, and President Riddle.

The minutes of the last regular and special meetings were read and approved.

The President stated that the meeting had been called for the purpose of receiving the report of the Committee on Sewerage, considering the question of consolidating the city with Pittsburgh, etc.

NEW MEMBERS ADMITTED.

Messrs. Dill and Windsor, members elect of Common Council from the Manchester district, being present, the oath of office was administered to them by Mayor Morrison, after which they took their seats.

SEWERAGE MATTER.

Mr. McNeil presented the report of the Special Committee on Sewerage, to whom was referred the remonstrances of parties assessed for the cost of constructing the sewers on Belmont street and West Common. The committee stated that they had given the subject due consideration, and being undecided whether Councils had the power, after the approval of the view, to reconsider their action, had obtained an opinion from the Solicitor on the question, which was submitted. The Solicitor giving it as his opinion that Councils have not the power, the committee reported that the assessments cannot be altered. The report was accepted and ordered to be filed.

Mr. Dill offered petitions from citizens of the Manchester district, praying for the reimbursement of assessments heretofore made for the adoption of an ordinance levying a general tax for that purpose. The petitions were recived and filed.

RESOLUTIONS.

Mr. Smith offered the following, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the Committee on Streets and sewers be instructed to report at the next meeting of Councils the propriety of petitioning the Legislature to repeal the act of May 1, 1861, relative to the present mode of building sewers in Allegheny.

In S. C. laid over.

Mr. Dill offered the following:

Resolved, That the Street Committee be requested to meet on Washington street, in the Fifth ward, on the 27th instant.

Mr. Dill stated that the street was at present being paved, under a contract entered into by the late borough of Manchester, and that it would be advisable for the Committee to visit it and inspect the improvement.

The resolution was adopted.

CREATING NEW WARDS.

Mr. Ingham offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Committee on New Wards be instructed to hold a meeting at its earliest convenience to prepare some plan for a division of wards.

Mr. Dill offered an amendment that three members from the new district be added to the Committee.

Mr. Smith stated that he was chairman of the Committee on New Wards, and would like to have an intelligent idea of what would be expected of it. The taxable inhabitants of the late borough of Manchester is 1,200, while the Fourth ward numbers 2,302. If it was proposed to create new wards, petitions should be sent into Councils.

Mr. Dill stated that the city was entirely represented by territory, and as the new district embraced more territory than any two wards in the city, it should be divided.

The resolution was adopted.

Mr. Windsor offered the following resolution, which was adopted.

Resolved, That the Wharf Committee meet at the Fifth ward wharf on Thursday, the 28th inst.

In all of which action not otherwise noted, the Select Council concurred.

SELECT COUNCIL.

Present—Messrs. Drum, English, Hall, Irwin, Motheral, Myler, Patterson J. C., Patterson A., Smith A. D., Smith J. B., Thomas, and President McBrier.

The President announced that the meeting was called for the purpose of considering the Consolidation and Sewerage questions.

NEW MEMBERS SWORN IN.

Mr. J. B. Smith moved that the members of Council from the Fifth ward, late Manchester, be admitted before proceeding to business. Carried.

The additional Councilmen (in Select branch) were Messrs. Motheral, Patterson and Pace. The latter was not present. The others presented themselves, were sworn in by Mayor Morrison, and took seats.

THE CONSOLIDATION MATTER.

Mr. Drum moved the appointment of a committee of five—two from the Select and three from the Common Council—to prepare a memorial remonstrating against the proposed act for the consolidation of the cities of Allegheny and Pittsburgh and surrounding boroughs, said committee to report at a joint meeting of the present session of Councils. The resolution was adopted, and Messrs. Drum and Myler appointed on the committee in behalf of Select Councils.

Mr. English desired that some member informed as to the provisions of the proposed act would make them known. He understood that it was proposed to consolidate the debts of the different municipalities and levy a tax to pay the same in twenty years. In that case Allegheny would be required to pay a considerable portion of the debt of Pittsburgh.

Mr. Drum stated that the bill had been in the hands of Senator Bigham, who had kept it in his possession until a few evenings since, when it was submitted to a caucus of Allegheny county members, He (Mr. Drum) had understood from a member of the Legislature that it was designed to hurry the bill through at once, and hence the necessity for immediate action by Councils.

Mr. Myler spoke in opposition to consolidation and believed that nine-tenths of the citizens of Allegheny were opposed to it.

The question of the power of the Legislature to interfere with the charter of Allegheny city being raised, Mr. Hall read from the City Code:

"Section XXIV. The Legislature reserves the right to alter, amend, or revoke any part, or the whole of this charter, at any time, when it may be deemed expedient."

Pending the action of Common Council on the resolution for the appointment of a committee on memorial, Mr. A. D. Smith moved a suspension of the rules for the purpose of taking up other business. Carried.

Mr. Smith then presented a remonstrance against the grading and paving of School street, as authorized by ordinance presented at last meeting of councils and referred to Street Committee. The remonstrance, which was signed by Ritchie & Finkbine, was referred to the Committee on Streets.

THE SEWERAGE QUESTION.

The Clerk of Common Council presented the report of the Special Committee, with the opinion of the City Solicitor, relative to the sewers on West Common and Belmont street, the assessments for the same not being considered fairly and equitably made. The City Solicitor was of the opinion that the Councils having once approved the assessment, had no power to change it at this late date.

It appearing that separate committees had been appointed in Select Council, one on the West Common and the other on the Belmont street sewer, and that the report was but from one committee on both sewers, President McBrier explained that but one committee in both cases had been appointed in the Common Council, and the Clerk of that body had taken cognizance only of the action there taken. However, it amounted to one and the same thing, as the powers of the Councils had been exhausted, in the opinion of the City Solicitor, and no further action could be taken.

Mr. J. C. Patterson stated that it had been suggested to the Committee, for this reason, to take action in the case of both sewers. Although their instructions were to report as to whether assessments were fairly and equitably made, and although they were satisfied the assessments were not so made, some of the property being benefitted fifty per cent and some five per cent., yet all assessed alike, the Committee were estopped in their consideration by the legal question in the matter, opportunity for affording relief to aggrieved parties having passed. To report, therefore, that the assessments were unjust, would have been useless.

Messrs. English and Thomas were not satisfied as to the ignoring of one of the Select Council committees, and contended that there was no report as to the Belmont sewer, and in fact no proper report in the other case, for the reason that the Committee had not reported, as instructed, whether the assessments were fairly and equitably made. The report as presented only referred to the Solicitor's opinion, and nothing was said concerning what the Committee were specially appointed to consider.

Mr. Patterson was willing to have the report amended by striking out any reference to the Belmont street sewer.

Mr. English said this would not mend the matter in the other case, the Committee not having reported as instructed.

Mr. Thomas—A member of the Committee (Mr. Patterson) states that he is satisfied of the unjustness of the assessment, to the extent of forty-five per cent. in some cases. Why did not the Committee so say? Was there no relief for aggrieved parties?

Mr. Hall stated there was no alternative but to pay the tax. He was of that opinion from the first, when the special committee was appointed, and if the report was referred back, to do which a disposition was manifested, he would ask to be excused from serving on the Committee. Mr. Patterson said he would also decline further serving.

A motion to concur with the Common Council, in the acceptance of the report prevailed, and thus ends the controversy for the present.

Mr. J. B. Smith asked whether any action of Councils was necessary to authorize the Treasurer to pay to contractors the money in his hands collected from parties assessed.

Mr. A. D. Smith replied that the law prescribed the duties of the Treasurer. and that Councils had really nothing to do with the matter.

JOINT SESSION.

Mr. Drum, from the Special Committee on Consolidation, reported that a memorial had been agreed to, whereupon the members of the select proceeded to the chamber of the Common Council.

The Committee reported the following:

We, the undersigned, members of the Select and Common Councils of the city of Allegheny, in joint session assembled, having learned with unfeigned surprise that a self-constituted committee, purporting to be the Board of Trade of Pittsburgh, are about to urge upon your honorable bodies the passage of a bill to consolidate the cities of Pittsburgh and Allegheny and the surrounding boroughs; and having also learned that the proposed bill is likely to become a law, do hereby solemnly, earnestly and firmly protest against such proposed action. We cannot conceive, gentlemen, that you will consent to blot from existence one of the fairest cities of the Commonwealth. Such action is only fit for the dark ages, or for some suburban aristocrat. We believe that all communities have a right to govern themselves in their own way, providing they do nothing repugnant to the laws of the State or General Government; we believe, further, that it is the bounden duty of the law making powers to protect the people in their chartered rights.

We, therefore, in behalf of our constituents, condemn any legislation relative to our affairs that is not asked for by us.

The committee also submitted the following resolutions:

Resolved, That the Presidents of Councils appoint a Committee to proceed to Harrisburg to protest in the name of the city and people against the purposed legislation.

Resolved, That any member of our State Legislature who votes for consolidation—the same not having been asked for by any considerable number of our citizens, and as we believe the same to be an attempted outrage on our rights—will thereby forfeit our confidence and esteem.

Resolved, That the Committee be instructed to call on the Governor and urge upon him, should the bill be passed, the importance of vetoing the same, and to assure him that he will receive the heart-felt thanks of the city that gave him the largest majority in proportion to its vote of any city in the State.

Mr. Hall stated that no member of Councils had any knowledge of the provisions of the proposed bill of consolidation, and inquiries should be made into it.

Mr. McBrier said that some reasons against consolidation should be given in the memorial. He thought it might be gotten up in a better shape.

Mr. Thomas took exception to that portion of the memorial which designated our brethren over the river as "suburban aristocrats."

Mr. English stated that it was understood that the bill would be brought up on Thursday, and it would be necessary to take immediate action in order to guard against its passage. The memorial should be signed by the members of Councils, and a committee appointed to proceed with it to Harrisburg.

Mr. Drum stated that Councils had had the assurance of nearly every member of the Legislature from this county that the consolidation bill would not be brought up this session, and Mr. Graham had promised to notify Councils in case it was agitated. They had, however, waited until this late hour, and were now endeavoring to "snake" it through. Mr. Drum referred in a very severe manner to Mr. Graham in neglecting to fulfil his promise.

Mr. Myler said it was a fact that there was not a member of the Legislature who thought it was his duty to look to the interests of Allegheny City. It had been supposed that Mr. Graham would do all he could for the city, but it appeared that he had also forsaken it.

Mr. McBrier moved that a committee be appointed to prepare a suitable memorial and proceed with it to Harrisburg. Adopted.

The sewerage question was then introduced and discussed at considerable length, but before any definite action had been taken, the joint meeting was dissolved, and the members of Select Council retired to their chamber.

Having no further business, Select Council adjourned.

An Invaluable Invention—A Rare Chance for Making Fortunes—A Lath Machine.

We yesterday had the pleasure of witnessing in operation a piece of new machinery which is destined to work a complete revolution in the manufacture of lath in this country. At the saw mill of McClintock & Cochran, corner of Rush and Butler streets, in the Ninth ward, is upon exhibition the celebrated American Lath Machine, the invention of J. C. Brown, from whom a heavy capital stock company of New York purchased the letters patent. Mr. T. L. Birch, the Superintendent of that company, is now here for the purpose of selling State and county rights for the machine, and we would direct the attention of our readers to its great advantages over the old machinery used in cutting lath. The machine occupies but little space and can be run with water or steam power. A log from one to four feet in diameter, cut fresh from the forest, is first sawed into pieces of the desired length of the lath, say about four feet, and is placed without any more preparation in the centre of the machine and supported by dogs or chucks in the centre of each end. The power applied, a scoring cylinder, with knives set in a line parallel with the axis of the log, is brought by automatic action against the surface of the log, which it indents and divides, forming lath of suitable width and thickness. By the same action a fixed knife, twin screws connecting it and the scoring cylinder, is brought in contact with the surface of the log while in motion, and pares off upwards of one thousand complete and perfect lath in one minute, the log revolving twenty-four times in the same time. Increase of power will increase this extraordinary speed, as the machines are so constructed to stand every effort. When it is taken into consideration that the manufacture of lath by the present machinery in use is a slow and tedious operation, requiring some seven or eight persons to turn out ten thousand per day, the marvelous capacity of the American Machine will be properly appreciated. The lath are more perfect and uniform than those manufactured by machinery now in use, and much more suitable for plasterers purposes. The blades of the scoring cylinder being equi-distant and fixed, indenting an equal depth and working automatically in combination with the stationary paring knife, each lath must be a duplicate of the other. Each lath has a level edge, is cut with the grain, thus securing the full strength of the wood and is decidedly an improvement upon that now in general use. With one of these machines in working order at a saw mill no fear need ever be entertained of a failure in supplying the demand. Timber cannot be used to more profitable advantage than in making lath by this machine, for there is not the least wastage, (no saw dust resulting from the cutting) and every inch of the log is made marketable and will find purchasers at all times. In Chicago alone last year no less than 189,000,000 of lath were used by builders, and a corresponding quantity is used throughout the Union, so that the supply will not for many years at least be gorged, by the introduction of this new machine. By the use of the American Lath cutter manufacturing material is largely increased, as it will prove hereafter profitable to use and work up discarded native timbers, such as poplar, cottonwood, elm, ash, sycamore, &c., &c. The field for manufacturing laths need no longer be confined to Maine, Michigan and Wisconsin, as the material being indefinitely increased, it will pay to produce laths in one State as well as in another.

The Superintendent of the Company will be found at the mill referred to at all hours of the day, and will show the machines in operation to all who may choose to call. The sole and exclusive right to use the machine within certain prescribed territorial limits, and to sell the product thereof, will be sold at reasonable prices by Mr. Birch.

We conceive this to be the most wonderful invention of the age, and to parties buying patent rights it will certainly prove lucrative beyond expression. None of the best territory in this neighborhood or adjoining States has yet been disposed of, and parties desiring to invest should at once call at the mill of McClintock & Cochran, and have an interview with Mr. Birch, the gentlemanly Superintendent of the American Lath Company, who will afford all desired information.

Common Pleas Court.

Before Hon. Thomas Mellon.

This Court yesterday was engaged in the trial of the case of Reece C. Fleeson's administrators vs. J. Heron Foster. After evidence was taken, arguments made and the jury discharged, plaintiff's council took a non suit, after which the court adjourned until Monday, when the January list will be taken up.

The Aldermen wish to assist in preserving better order in the city, but like other people will not work without pay. Take away their jurisdiction in "summary cases" altogether, or else allow them fees as heretofore. That would be the "square" thing. The argument that they would, as some have done, appropriate fines and forfeitures to their own use, instead of paying them over, is not sound. Magistrates are as amenable to the law as other folks, and if they thus offend they should be made suffer.

Oyer and Terminer, &c.

Before Hon. James P. Sterrett.

This Court met at nine o'clock Tuesday morning, and proceeded with the —Commonwealth vs. Alexander Moffitt—on trial since Thursday of last week. M. Swartzwelder, Esq., addressed the jury on behalf of the defense, occupying an hour and a quarter, and making a most able argument, fully sustaining the high reputation he bears as a criminal lawyer. He was followed by Thomas M. Marshall, Esq., who presented the case of the prosecution in the strongest light possible, and with that eminent degree of ability which has characterized his practice at the bar for a period of twenty years. After being charged by the Court, the jury were permitted to take dinner before retiring to deliberate upon a verdict. The case was concluded about half-past twelve o'clock, when the Court took a recess until two o'clock. At 3:30 the jury returned with a verdict of "guilty."

COUNTERFEIT MONEY CONSPIRACY CASE.

Mr. Swartzwelder moved for a new trial, and said he would file reasons within the required time. four days. Moffitt, the defendant, renewed his recognizance,

VERSAILLES HOMICIDE CASE.

Upon the reassembling of the Court the case of the Commonwealth vs. John and Luther Way, brothers, indicted for the murder of William Dodds, was called. Judge Mellon came upon the bench at the arraignmen, the law requiring that two Judges shall sit in homicide trials. The prisoners were duly arraigned by Clerk Brown, and a jury obtained without much difficulty. The counsel in the case are W. C. Moreland, and John Dalzell, Esqs., with Col. Duff, District Attorney, for the Commonwealth, and Thomas M. Marshall, Esq., for the defense.

The difficulty which resulted in the homicide, took place at Wire's tavern, on the Greensburg turnpike, about three miles east of Turtle Creek, in Versailles township, on the 17th of December last, where Dodds, the deceased, with others, went in a sleigh. Whilst there a quarrel arose between Dodds and John Way, which ended in the latter attacking Dodds with an iron (coal-digger's) pick, striking him in the left side with such force as to penetrate to the depth of some inches. The deadly instrument, it is alleged, was furnished by Luther Way, the younger brother, (and a mere boy in appearance,) thus aiding and abetting in the homicide. Dodds died two days after (on the 19th of December), from the effects of the wound received.

The case was opened on behalf of the Commonwealth by Mr. Dalzell, (recently admitted to the bar,) who briefly and very clearly detailed the facts which they expected to prove, and upon which they would claim a verdict against John Way for murder in the first degree, and read from the case of Kilpatric vs. the Commonwealth the definition by the Supreme Court of the law of homicide.

Michael Dodds testified to the death of William Dodds, his brother. Dr. William Gore, who attended him, testified that deceased had a wound in the left side five inches from the spine and extending two and a half inches along the sixth rib, and penetrating into the chest. The wound was made with a sharp instrument, not a knife, and was necessarily fatal; death ensuing from the shock to the system. Dr. Schoofy, who also attended deceased, testified that the wound which was nearly square, when the arm was elevated, was between the fifth and sixth ribs, extending forward and upward to where it entered the chest.

George Keskan, a butcher, was present at Wier's tavern when the affair occurred. John Way had a difficulty with a blacksmith named Thomas Sarber and was knocked down several times by him. Afterwards Way was disputing with his brother, when Dodds interfered, and pushed him aside, when Wier, the tavern-keeper, caught Dodds, telling "that's not your business, let them fight." Luther Way then got a coal-digger's pick, which he gave to his brother, John Way, who then called to Dodds, "now come on you s— of a b—, I'll kill you." Dodds said, "What, you call me a s— of a b—," and went towards Way, who raised the pick. Dodds leaned to the right with hands upraised as if to grasp the pick, but received the blow in his left side. Way dropped the pick and ran out of the tavern, Dodds following, but soon returned and fell upon the floor bleeding profusely. On cross-examination, Keskan stated that Way and Sarber had a difficulty about a dog, and the former was knocked down three times. Dodds caught Way by the neck and said, "we'll have no fighting here, you don't belong to our crowd." Wier, who had been standing apart, talking to witness, caught hold of Dodds and said, "that's none of your business, let them fight among themselves." Dodds did not strike Way, only pushing him.

George Wier, the tavern keeper was next called. The pick was produced and identified as the one used by Way. This witness corroborated the testimony of Keskan.

[Dodds, the deceased, was stated to have been about thirty years of age, weighing about one hundred and fifty pounds, and considerably older, heavier and stouter than the elder Way, who, although sparely built, looks robust, and is possessed of at least an ordinary amount of muscle.]

Further corroborating evidence was given by Colin Lotts and Watson Means. At the time Dodds caught hold of Way he said he was a friend of Sarber. Before striking, Way retreated swinging the pick, Dodds went towards him and pushed Wier aside when he attempted to stop him. Mr. Means stated that he saw Dodds slap Way. All parties had been drinking freely and were a "little warm."

Thomas Sarber testified—Have a blacksmith shop opposite the tavern. Went to the shop, and being told there was going to be another fuss, looked out. Way was saying something to his brother Luther. Dodds then came out (the affair took place on the porch of the tavern) and struck Way; witness heard Dodds use the name of; of witness; next saw Way with a pick; he knocked the snow off it; he then raised it up overhead, kept waving it, saying "stand off;" Dodds went toward him, shoving aside Wier, who had caught hold of him, and as he attempted to grasp the pick, Way stepped back and struck the pick in his (Dodds') side. Witness was about forty rods off.

John Churfield testified that Dodds said Sarber was a friend of his and would fight for him. From the position in which the parties were at the time supposed that Dodds would have grasped the pick had not Way stepped back, and as he did so gave the blow.

James Mitchell, who saw part of the affair, testified that Way kept retreating before he got the pick, and also afterwards, saying "keep off" or "keep back," as he had the weapon upraised. The fight between Way and Sarber took place but a few minutes before Dodds was struck, Sarber having scarcely reached his shop before Way and Dodds were quarreling.

The wife of the deceased was called and identified the clothing he wore at the time of receiving the injury.

Officer Wilmot testified that he arrested Luther Way, who admitted that he had given the pick to his brother, and that he was so badly scared he did not know what he was doing. This was the only evidence as to his identity as the person who furnished the weapon.

The Commonwealth having closed their case at 5:45, Court adjourned till Wednesday morning.

Oliver M'Clintock & Co.'s Carpet Rooms, 23 Fifth Street.

Prominent among the mercantile houses which connect the early business history with the present, and which for years have marked the progress of our commercial growth and prosperity, stands that of Oliver M'Clintock & Co., importers and dealers in carpets, No. 23 Fifth street. Established many years ago by the grandfather of the present proprietors, who was succeeded by their father, the house has steadily kept pace with the times, and to-day stands as one of the representative carpet emporiums of the country. The trade, which from a tiny beginning has enlarged into immense proportions, has been held successfully against all competition, by a correct system of business, from which deviation was never made. The merchandise kept for sale was invariably marked at reasonable prices. No false representations were ever held out to secure patronage; carpets sold were of the best quality, and proved even more than what was represented. Custom secured was easily retained, and it is little wonder that the house now enjoys so enviable a reputation. The suite of salesrooms occupied by McClintock & Co. will compare in elegance and general convenience to any in the eastern cities. The firm have on hand an immense stock of goods, which were purchased previous to the passage of the tariff, and are thus enabled to offer superior bargains to the purchasing community. They deal largely in Velvet, Brussels, Ingrain, Wiltons, and other styles and qualities of floor coverings, together with tapestries, curtains, oil cloths, rugs, stair rods, and every thing usually found in first class establishments of similar character. Orders for carpets, mattings, or oil cloths made up ready for putting down in eccentric shaped rooms, passages and halls are carefully filled, by skillful employees, so that the difficulty of "fitting carpets," which perplexes housekeepers, is entirely obviated. The senior member of the firm recently visited Europe where he spent considerable time in arranging for direct importation of foreign carpets, so that the newest styles will always be found at McClintock's, at the prices held by Eastern importers. The facilities enjoyed by the firm for the purchase of American manufactured goods are also of the most advantageous character, and the benefits are bestowed upon purchasers who favor this house with their patronage. The card of the firm appears in another column.

A number of the members of the Medical Society have volunteered to relieve him for a time of his night practice. A compliment well deserved, and generously accorded by his professional brethern.

The Dispatch and Mayor McCarthy.

The Dispatch yesterday very liberally devoted nearly forty dollars worth of local to disprove Mr. Nicholson's statement of facts which appeared in Monday's Gazette, regarding the recent police raid upon McQuaid's house at Wilkinsburg. We are not in humor to enter into any further controversy upon the subject, especially since our neighbor's argument has neither point nor merit. Its design is transparent. The community need not be informed that the Dispatch is moving heaven and earth to turn the current of public opinion against Mayor McCarthy and his administration, and will sieze upon the most trifling circumstance to make capital to accomplish its ends. The game of elevating the individual to knock down the officer, is about "played out" in this community. If the Dispatch has another candidate for Mayor to shove upon the people next election, let it so announce in order that its readers may not be left in the dark as to the real motives which induces the unjust condemnation of Mayor McCarthy and his very excellent police force.

Some Childish Fault Finders say that the police are never outside of the Mayor's office. Others equally childish say that none of the police are ever in the Mayor's Office. The truth is that there are always one or more officers in the office unless called away by special duty, and those whose duty does not keep them inside are attending to outside matters.

The Pittsburgh Gazette.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 27, 1867.

AN IMPRESSION has widely prevailed that the appropriation made by Congress for the relief of Southern and Southwestern destitution was adequate to the exigencies of the case. General HOWARD's letter to a friend in Philadelphia urging the importance of immediate private contributions, certainly contradicts this impression, and ought to be held as conclusive. Pittsburgh has a reputation for radicalism in politics, and it would be graceful, as well as in many ways beneficial, for her to demonstrate by timely and liberal action, that radicalism is humane and benevolent.

MORE RAILROADS.

A bill has passed the House of Representatives to compel the Pennsylvania Railroad Company to complete the Northwestern Railroad. It will be remembered that some twelve or fifteen years ago a charter was granted and a company organized to construct a railroad from Blairsville, Indiana county, on the Pennsylvania Railroad, to New Castle, in Lawrence county, at which place, as was then expected, it would form a junction with the Mahoning road, which runs from Cleveland to the Pennsylvania State line, a few miles west of New Castle. The line of this road was down the Connemaugh and Kiskiminetas to the Allegheny river, a short distance above Freeport; thence through the centre of Butler county to the town of Butler; and thence by the best route to New Castle.

The original company commenced work immediately and made considerable progress along that part of the line between Blairsville and the Allegheny river at the mouth of Kiskiminetas; but, their funds becoming exhausted, the work ceased to be prosecuted, and lay suspended for several years. At length the Pennsylvania Railroad Company became possessed of the franchises of the old Northwestern Company; the work on that partially completed portion of the line was resumed, and more than a year ago the whole line from the Allegheny river and the Allegheny Valley Railroad, at the mouth of the Kiskiminetas to Blairsville, was completed. Subsequently a railroad was laid in the bed of the abandoned Pennsylvania Canal, from Allegheny City to the mouth of the Kiskiminetas, where a junction was formed with this road; and now trains run regularly from Allegheny City to Blairsville, and to the main line of the Pennsylvania Railroad near Blairsville.

Meanwhile nothing whatever was done on that part of the original line lying between the Allegheny River and New Castle. The general impression seemed to settle down upon the popular mind that that part of the original programme had been abandoned. It is true that, for purposes of through trade between the Lakes and Philadelphia, it might now be easily dispensed with; but it will be of immense benefit to the country through which it is to pass, and aid greatly in the development of their rich mineral resources. It is not generally known that there is probably as much coal in Butler county as in any other county in Western Pennsylvania; but being utterly without railroads, canals, or navigable streams, that coal has been of almost as little use commercially as if it were in the moon. It is also rich in iron, and has much excellent soil; and if it had railroad facilities, would increase rapidly in population and wealth. For this reason we are glad to learn that it is likely soon to be accommodated. Lawrence county has railroad accommodations now, and is prospering just as we wish to see Butler county prosper.

Pittsburgh favors such improvements as these in every part of our State; and if they do not bring grists directly to her mill, they will indirectly. By and by we shall have a road by the Chartiers Valley to Washington, Pa., in which it is more than likely the Pennsylvania Railroad will have a finger. That corporation, moreover, has agreed to extend its Bald Eagle branch, beginning at Tyrone City, to Clearfield, in Clearfield county. This last enterprise will develop a large section of country in the very heart of the State, which is still poor, simply because it has no commercial facilities; and it is all the more entitled to favor because the people of that section are not able to build railroads for themselves. It would be sheer idleness and folly to quarrel with such enterprises as these, even were we inclined to do so; but we are not so inclined. Now let [illegible] have the same freedom awarded [illegible] Connellsville Company, which has certainly as good a right to build roads in the southwestern counties as the Pennsylvania Company has in the centre and the northwest. Give to the Pennsylvania Company freedom to build as many of such roads as these as it pleases; but sternly forbid its shutting up any route that could be profitably improved by other parties.

The Mahoning Railroad comes into Pennsylvania through the valley of the Mahoning River, and reaches the Pittsburgh and Erie Railroad at the confluence of the Mahoning and Shenango, some three miles below New Castle. As yet it goes no farther east. But a route from thence, via the valley of the Conoquenessing Creek, and Old Harmony, near the southern border of Butler county, to the head waters of Pine Creek, and thence down the last named stream to the Allegheny River, four miles above Allegheny City, has been run, and found to be a very good one. It is through this line that the people of Ohio expect to reach Baltimore and Washington via the Connellsville Railroad. It is well that the Northwestern Company should complete their road on the original line; for it will open up a rich coal and iron region; but this extension of the Mahoning road via Harmony and Pine Creek would give to Pittsburgh access to one of the finest sections of Western Pennsylvania both for soil and minerals, and open up one of the best routes to the Lakes that can be found. By all means let them both be made.

COURTING THE BLACKS.

Of whatever else the New York World may be accused it will not be charged with dulness of apprehension. Its peculiar quality is edge or penetration. Not profound and ponderous, it is sharp and incisive. Hence, when the Military Government bill became a law, it frankly and faithfully admonished the Southern whites, and particularly such of them as aspire to political distinction and influence hereafter, to make a serious business of "courting" the blacks. No matter how awkward such employment might be to chivalrous gentlemen, taught to believe in the essential inferiority of black people to white ones, and that a task-master, armed with a cat-'o-nine-tails, was the true and legitimate persuader of menials, a necessity had been created for new conceptions and observances, which could not be overlooked or set aside.

What the World urged, in this respect, it has been practicing; not with much skill, to be sure, but with an earnestness that compensates for deficiencies. It recently plunged into ethnology, and undertook to demonstrate, on the basis of pure science, that Democrats have been laboring under a delusion in supposing that an offensive odor exhaled from members of the black race. The conclusion reached was, that

> "As regards the popular notion of the odor of the negro, it may be positively stated that he, in this respect, is like the white—a clean negro being free from it, and a foul one cursed by it."

It is easy to see that this fact in natural history was not discovered by any ordinary process of investigation. It was obtained by a round-about path through the domain of politics. The ballot, in the hands of some of the blacks, has purified the whole of them, in a most mysterious manner, from a taint that has sickened the democracy for sixty years. No necromancer's slight-of-hand is at all comparable to this!

Let us go back and inquire into this "popular notion" of the odorous repulsiveness of the negro. In the old days, before the Proclamation of Emancipation, Democrats both of high and low degree, with one consent protested a negro did not smell sweet; but when the two sorts of Democrats were questioned separately, and in detail, the points of agreement between them vanished. A Democrat, so dirty in his personal habits that one stench more or less would not perceptibly change his offensive condition, was sure to turn up his nose, with a genuine Democratic quirk, whenever a black entered his presence. His perception of smells was not to be deceived or disputed. An aristocratic Democrat, if the expression may be allowed, stated the case very differently. According to his theory the odor depended altogether upon the relation sustained by the black to certain whites. If the black was a coachman, he might ride beside his master, or even his mistress, and no improper smell was perceptible. If the black was a body servant, he might sleep in the same room with his master, without imparting the slightest contamination to the atmosphere. If the black was a nurse, she might attend mistress or child, and the closest proximity did not produce an appreciable unpleasantness of olfactory sensation. Only when the black asserted equality, or even independence, did he seem less clean than a white. The exhalation was not at all in the black race, but was produced by the relationships members of that race sustained to members of the white race.

The ballot is a marvellous deodorizer. Henceforward the democratic ethnological formula will be changed, and no musk will appear in the statement of the composition of the negro. Great is the ballot! and great the awe inspired by it in the democracy!

But the World does not stop with this rectification of the prevailing democratic analysis of the physical composition of the blacks. It proceeds to vindicate their moral character and deportment. It makes this strong assertion:

> "As a race, the negroes of New York, considered from a police point of view, are a better class of citizens than the lower grades of whites. A negro is brought before the Courts occasionally for theft; occasionally a black man is arraigned for outrage; but very rarely for drunkenness or murder. As a class, the negroes give the police comparatively little trouble. This is the almost universal testimony alike of patrolmen, sergeants, captains, and superintendents; and we publish it as at least an approximation to the truth."

Undoubtedly! Nobody ever heard of the blacks in New York turning out in huge gangs, openly breaking into stores and dwellings, plundering by wholesale, setting the invaded premises on fire, and slaughtering white people indiscriminately. Only "the lower grades of whites," who vote the Democratic ticket, have been guilty of such enormities. Nor are the blacks merely exempt from vulgar and brutal crimes of this sort. Blacks are never mixed up in bank defalcations, and rarely in burglarious entrances into banks. They do not indulge in the luxury of forgery, counterfeiting, stock-gambling, and genteel swindling generally. In these particulars, at least, they are far less exposed to reproach than the higher classes of whites.

The admissions of the World, however, will do for a commencement. As Democratic anxiety increases to divide or monopolize the votes of the blacks, this "courting" process will be quickened and intensified. Democratic appreciation of the excellencies of the blacks will be exalted; and by and by the whole diapason of Democratic eulogy will be sounded in their behalf.

—The Wilmington (Delaware) Gazette says that Mr. Heston, the Cashier of the Farmer's Bank, is charged with the defalcation of nearly $10,000. He himself informed the President and Directors of the fact, and offered as an excuse that his salary of $1,200 per year was not sufficient to support him and his family. He is about thirty-seven years of age, has been for a long time a member of the church, and for the last twelve years connected with the bank. His securities, it is said, are good for the amount of the defalcation, and, therefore, the bank will not suffer any loss.

—A terrible explosion occurred in the harbor of Hong Kong, January 17th. The hulk Zephyr, used to storage powder, blew up, and was totally destroyed; also the Bremen schooner Themis. Thirty to forty persons were killed; many persons on boats in the neighborhood were killed. There were two hundred thousand pounds of powder aboard. The town shook as with an earthquake. Four English gunboats moored in the vicinity barely escaped destruction. In the village of Yahmatee one hundred and thirty houses were unroofed and shaken down.

—An act has been reported to the Massachusetts Legislature, which provides that proprietors of public halls shall secure suitable and safe egress to protect life and limb in case of alarm or danger. If any proprietor of a hall shall fail, after being notified to provide sufficient passage ways, the authorities may suspend the use of such hall, and if it is used contrary to the order, a fine of not less than one hundred and not exceeding five hundred dollars shall be imposed.

—Miss Van Wie and A. A. Wheelock have been giving "spirit manifestations" at Lowell, Mich. The exhibition of spirit hands, flowers, &c., through the hole in the door of a cabinet, in which Miss Van Wie was placed, was the "feature" of the performance. Some skeptical ladies insisted, one evening, on a thorough examination of the medium's person. This, after resistance, was submitted to, and the articles were discovered in a small package.

—A negro was shot in the head at Leavenworth on Wednesday, but fought and punished the shooter, and himself escaped with little more than a wounded scalp.

—A Chicago Judge has decided that a young man's agreeable company, at a boarding house where he must escort ugly old maid boarders at the bidding of the landlady, is equivalent to his boarding bill.

—An exchange says it seems that the roll of Robert Toombs' slaves will be called at a Georgia ballot box instead of at Bunker Hill.

—Mr. Colfax, with the exception of Henry Clay, is the only man who has been three times elected Speaker of the House.

PITTSBURGH, May 19, 1866.

Messrs. Hostetter & Smith:

GENTLEMEN—During a visit to the West, last fall, I contracted chills and fever, which brought me to my bed, and finally terminated in typhoid fever, and confined me to my room for several months, during which time I was physically so prostrated that I almost despaired of ever recovering my health: having almost entirely lost my appetite for days, not being able to eat a morsel, added to which I was distressed with a reeling sensation in my head, and passed many sleepless nights—all from debility caused by my prostrate condition, brought about by fever. At this stage of my condition a friend recommended me to use your celebrated Stomach Bitters, but being morally opposed to the use of stimulants in any form, I at first declined, but afterwards yielded my prejudices, and, after taking the medicine for several weeks, my appetite returned, and with it I am rapidly regaining my former strength and vigor. My sleep (from the loss of which I have suffered much,) has never been better than it is now, and the reeling sensation (before alluded to) has entirely left me. My bowels, which were much constipated and irregular, are now quite natural, and in fact, I am glad to say that I feel myself a new man, and tender you this testimonial of my appreciation of your valuable preparation, in order that others, suffering as I have, may avail themselves of its virtues, which prejudice kept me from enjoying for so long a period. I may also add that my physician, after seeing the beneficial effect of your Bitters on me, recommended that I use them regularly.

Yours, very respectfully,
E. BOURNE,
No. 45 Market street.

THE INDIANS AND THE WHITE PINE.

Although long known to the aborigines of America, Dr. George W. Swett, of Boston, has brought into shape for convenient use, a most valuable preparation called POLAND'S WHITE PINE COMPOUND, which for a number of years has given great satisfaction in the cure of all those ailments dependent on an inflamed or irritated condition of the mucous membranes of the animal organism. For gravel, diabetes, dropsy, chronic bronchitis, nasal catarrh, constipation, when depending on a debilitated state of the intestines, it is one of the most valuable discoveries recently added to pharmaceutical medicine. It is likewise a most valuable compound for diseases of the kidneys and bladder generally, as any one can satisfy himself upon a single trial. Every one knows the healing virtue of the white pine for sores and ulcers, but Dr. Swett has gone to work and prepared from the sweet inside bark of that valuable tree a compound that will meet every indication where the pine would be valuable.

It is confidently recommended for the following ailments:

Diabetes in young or middle aged people;
Diabetes in old people;
Stoppage of the Urine;
The same difficulty in children during the night;
Gravel, Kidney Trouble in old people;
Ulcerated Kidneys, Ulcerated Bladder;

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

AN ORDINANCE FOR THE IMPROVEMENT and extension of the Fifth Ward Market.

WHEREAS, It is desirable that the present Market House in the Fifth Ward should be rebuilt and enlarged for the greater accommodation of the citizens of the Fifth and Ninth Wards of the city: therefore,

Be it enacted by the Mayor, Aldermen and citizens of Pittsburgh, in Select and Common Council assembled, That, whenever the citizens of said wards shall subscribe the amount necessary for rebuilding the present market house, in said Fifth ward and for the purchase of any additional ground which may be necessary for the enlargement thereof, they shall submit to Councils, for their approval or amendment, the plan or plans on which they purpose to erect the same; and when the said plan or plans shall have been approved by Councils, the said subscribers shall appoint three of their members to act in conjunction with a committee of the same number to be appointed by Councils, who shall constitute a committee, to be known as the "Joint Building Committee of the Fifth Ward market," whose duty it shall be to carry out the provisions of this ordinance and to see that the said market is erected in conformity with the plans approved of by Councils.

SEC. 2. Said Committee shall be appointed to act until the first regular meeting of Councils in January, 1868, or until their successors shall be duly appointed; and during the month of January, in each year hereafter, the Councils and the said subscribers shall appoint a Committee to hold their offices and execute the duties therein enjoined until their successors shall be duly appointed.

SEC. 3. Said subscribers shall be authorized to erect a new Market House on the ground now occupied for that purpose, and to purchase additional grounds if the plans approved by Councils shall require it. All contracts for the purchase of grounds and for the work and material for the erection of buildings shall be made by said subscribers in such manner as they may see proper subject to the approval and ratification of the Joint Building Committee of Fifth Ward Markets: provided, that the city shall be in no manner bound for their fulfillment.

SEC. 4. If any additional ground shall be purchased for said buildings or market purposes, the title to the same shall be made to the Mayor, Aldermen and citizens of Pittsburgh, and the property shall be vested in said Mayor, Aldermen and citizens of Pittsburgh, subject to the provisions of this ordinance, and upon the fulfillment of the terms herein provided, shall become vested in said Mayor, Aldermen and citizens of Pittsburgh absolutely.

SEC. 5. When said Market House shall have been erected in conformity with this ordinance, said Joint Building Committee shall establish rules and regulations for the government of the same and submit the same to Councils for approval or amendment, and it shall be the duty of the Joint Building Committee to elect a Superintendent of said Fifth Ward Market House, whose duty it shall be, under the direction of said Committee, to take charge of said building, attend to opening, closing, cleansing and repairing the same, letting on and shutting off the gas, collect all rents and pay all moneys so collected to the Treasurer of the Fifth Ward Market House Association, and also perform all other duties which may be assigned him by said Joint Committee.

SEC. 6. That no repairs or alterations whatever shall be made by any one excepting said Superintendent and only by him, by and under the special directions of said joint committee; and that the said Superintendent, for all repairs and alterations made by him, shall produce his vouchers to said joint committee, which, when approved and countersigned by the President of said joint committee, shall be paid by the Treasurer of said Association.

SEC. 7. That it shall be the duty of said joint committee to establish the salary of said Superintendent, and to take bonds for the faithful and honest performance of the duties assigned him; and said joint committee shall have full power to dismiss said Superintendent at pleasure.

SEC. 8. That the aggregate cost of the construction of the New Market House to be erected, including the cost of drawings, Superintendence, and other incidental charges and purchase money of any lot or lots of ground, shall be fully adjusted and fixed by said joint committee, and that the interest to be allowed to the subscribers to the fund for the building of said Market House shall be computed from the time the several instalments were paid to the Treasurer of the said Association: and that the said Joint Committee shall issue to said subscribers certificates of stock, or such other evidences of indebtedness for subscriptions as they may deem right and proper. And the Treasurer of said Fifth Ward Market House Association, after first deducting the cost of repairs and other necessary expenses, shall pay over the proceeds of said Market annually, in the month of December, to the respective subscribers of said Market, in proportion to their respective subscriptions, until they shall be fully reimbursed the principal and interest of the amounts respectively subscribed and paid by them.

SEC. 9. That whenever the provisions of the eighth section of this ordinance shall have been fully complied with, the said Market, or Market House, with the grounds attached to the same, shall become the property of the city, together with the revenue and emoluments arising therefrom, and the duties and powers of said Joint Building Committee shall cease and determine.

SEC. 10. That the accounts and vouchers of the Treasurer of the Fifth Ward Market House Association shall be exhibited annually to the Auditing Committee of Councils, under oath to be by them audited and reported upon in the same manner as the city accounts usually are.

The Pittsburgh Gazette.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 27, 1867.

Report of the the Fire Marshal.

On Monday N. Grattan Murphy, Esq., presented to the Judges of the Court of Common Pleas, his third annual report as Fire Marshal of the County of Allegheny. Our crowded columns yesterday compelled us to omit the report. Below we give extracts therefrom. The Court, after complimenting Mr. Murphy, re-appointed him Fire Marshal, a compliment well earned by his careful performance of his duties. Mr. Murphy says:

Since the 28th of March, 1866, the date of my last report, there has been an aggregate loss arising from fires within the county of $789,308. The amount of insurance on property either wholly or partially destroyed was $834,943, and the amount of loss paid or adjusted to be paid was $450,763. During that period the number of fires that have occurred was 78; the number of alarms from cause 71, and that from false alarms 37.

The following is a comparative statement of the aggregate losses by fire, amount of insurance and amount paid:

	Gross Loss.	Amount of Ins.	Amount of In. Pd.
For the year ending March 25, 1867.	$789,308	$834,943	$450,763
For the year ending March 26, 1866.	741,123	876,603	336,014
	In. $48,185	De. $41,660	In. $114,749

The Marshal congratulates the community upon its comparative freedom from disastrous fires. Concerning the Alarm Telegraph he says:

"It affords me great satisfaction to state that we have now in operation, in the City of Pittsburgh, perhaps one of the most complete and effective fire alarms in the United States, erected by Messrs. Gamewell, Kennard & Co., of New York, by whom it was handed over to the city authorities on the 10th of November last, when it was publicly tested, and since which date it has proved to be an entire success. Great credit is due to the Committee of Councils, William R. Brown, John H. Hare and William N. Ogden, for their zeal and energy in securing its early completion, as well as for the sound judgment manifested by them in adopting so excellent and reliable a system.

He speaks very urgently concerning the insufficient supply of water and condemns anew the faulty construction of buildings, urging the appointment of a competent inspector of buildings. He speaks as follows concerning fires from explosive oils:

The number of fires and casualties resulting from the use of carbon oils, during the last year, in various parts of the country, has been large, occasioning the loss of many lives and much valuable property. Carbon oils for illuminating purposes which do not ignite at a less temperature than from 110 to 115 degrees, are considered by scientific men to be safe. Out of fifteen samples of some of the best brands of refined American petroleum that were submitted to proper tests by Dr. John Attfield, an eminent London chemist, the igniting point of vapor, in an open bowl of 14 such samples, was between 89 and 105 degrees Fahrenheit, and in eleven, it was between 80 and 98 degrees, the remaining one not igniting below 134 degrees. As oils of the highest test are selected for exportation, I am inclined to believe that a large amount of those retained for home consumption, judging from the daily casualties occurring from their use, will ignite at a very low temperature. In view of these facts, I am constrained to think the use of all mineral oils that ignite at a less temperature than from 110 to 115 degrees, and all dangerous burning fluids, by whatever name they may be known, should be prohibited by legislative enactment, under severe pains and penalties. Some of these fluids are composed almost wholly of benzole. Benzole is one of the first distillations from crude petroleum, and is the most volatile and dangerous of them all. Large quantities of this article are purchased in this market at a very low price, (it scarcely having any commercial value, the refiners running large amounts of it into the river, as it will scarcely pay the expense of barreling), and shipped to some eastern city, where it is manipulated by unscrupulous persons, and by the addition of a little coloring matter and an attractive name, such as "Paragon oil," "non-explosive fluid," &c., &c., it is sold to the credulous and unwary at from 60c to $1 per gallon.

Mr. Murphy alludes anew to the prevalent crime of incendiarism, and regrets that all efforts so far have failed to bring the perpetrators of the crime to justice. He urges more care and attention upon the part of the agents and assistants of the underwriters in insuring premises, and concludes his able report by returning thanks to the Fire Department generally, and to S. T. Paisley, Esq., Superintendent of the Alarm Telegraph, for assistance rendered him.

A Louisville Poet Telleth of the Great Republic.

The Louisville Democrat has upon its staff a poetical "cuss" who imortalizes the "Great Republic" in the most feeling manner. His "ode" is about as fine a piece of composition as we have ever read, and so long as such a genius is running loose, Pittsburgh boat builders will suffer similar inflictions of "hot, burning verse."

Here it is, in Louisville measure:

"ILE GIT A BORED
And talk a peap at yure kabin. Geerusylum!
But ain't it splendid! It must have cost
A heep uv dollars tu put on awl that gildin!
And thoas shandyleers, about a dozen
Uv 'em, lookin' like sollid gold, only moar so.
Whot grandir! Whot magniffsense!
How like sum gorjus pallis we read uv
In fary tails! And when nite cums,
And all thoas splendid shandyleers
Are lited up, and frum yure hundrid
Lamps soft and subdewed lights are flashin forth,
And from yure band soft stranes
Of musick flote upon the tremblin' air,
While twinklin feet are glidin' in the danse—
Yer wood look splendid! But time
Krawls on apase, and with a si
Uv deep regret I leve yer. But I hav sean
Yure buties, and I kan now dye kontent!
I hope yule nevir sink, nor birn up,
Nor git on a sanbar, nor bust them bilers,
Nor git enny other axident happin tu yu!
Majestick steemer, fairwel; adoo!

You may talk about your Pittsburgh boats—
they're good enough, 'tis true,
But many a stately steamer floats that Pittsburgh never knew.
This nine days' wonder was built there, but we have yet to see
If the Great Republic can compare with the Richmond or the Lee.

Success attend her on her way, no jealousy
we feel;
Than Louisville no place can lay a nobler,
swifter keel,
'Tis doubtful policy, at best, these monstrous wooden walls—
But the fastest steamers in the West are built around the falls.

New Books.

DAVID COPPERFIELD. By Charles Dickens. With original illustrations. Boston: Ticknor & Fields. For sale at Pittsburgh, by G. W. Pittock.

This volume is a further installment of an admirable edition of all Mr Dicken's works. The artistic embellishments and excellent typography, combine to make this the most enticing edition of the great novelist that has appeared in the United States.

THE GENIUS OF SOLITUDE. By W. R. Alger. Boston: Roberts Brobats. Pittsburgh, for sale by J. W. Pittock.

The physical and spiritual solitudes, as of individuality, of grief, of love, of occupation, of selfishness, of genius, and of death, are discriminated, and their dangers and uses depicted. Examples are added of the good and evil of solitude, in characters which have become historic. Though not written with profound philosophical insight, it affords a practical interpretation of certain phases of character which are highly valuable.

ECCE DEUS. Essays on the Life and Doctrine of Jesus Christ. With controversial notes on "Ecce Homo." Boston: Roberts Brothers. Pittsburgh, for sale by J. W. Pittock.

This is one of the numerous responses, more or less distinct, to "Ecce Homo," one of the most able and inscrutible works which this century has produced. While to some extent controversial, it is mainly a re-survey of the Life and Doctrine of Jesus Christ. It is written in a fine style and in better temper than usually characterizes theological essays.

Serious Explosion.

Dr. A. W. Semple, a dentist in Steubenville, while engaged in vulcanizing a set of teeth at his residence, Saturday evening, received some very severe injuries from the explosion of the vulcanizer, several pieces of iron cutting him about the face and mouth severely, but not dangerously. Medical aid was summoned immediately, and we are pleased to state that the Doctor is doing as well as could be expected this morning. The Doctor at the time of the accident was working with the boiler, and fortunately was standing at the side of the apparatus at the time of the explosion; had he been leaning over it, he would not have escaped with his life, as the top of the boiler was blown through the floor above, into the garret.

Where's the Lumber.

Dr. William Badger, of Smithfield street, yesterday made information before Alderman McMasters, charging Peter Milvert and Isaac Bombery of Birmingham, with false pretences. The deponent is building a house on his farm on Charters Creek, Robinson township and hired the defendants to haul lumber. On the 19th inst, as he alleges they came and told him that they had hauled all the lumber except one load, and would haul that as soon as one of their horses recovered from lameness, meantime they would like forty dollars. The money was paid, but the next day the carpenter came to the Doctor and complained that no lumber at all had yet been produced on the farm. Warrants were issued.

Lucky.—The Beaver, Pa., Local says: John Brittan, the old gentleman of Fallston this county, who recently became unexpectedly wealthy by the discovery of a valuable anthracite coal vein on some mountainous land in the Lackawanna district, which he had a few years ago abandoned as worthless, has sold his interest in the same for the sum of $400,000—$200,000 of which is to be paid him on the 1st proximo.

Which was the Mother?—The Fayette county (Ohio) Herald tells of a cat in that place that hatched out a couple of chickens, by making her bed in a box in which some eggs were kept.

Obeyed Orders.

Peter Wolf, the owner of a lot near the Allegheny river in the Fifth ward, made information yesterday before Alderman Taylor, charging Hugh Roney and Robert Carven, carters in the employ of Patrick Duffy a contractor on the Pennsylvania railroad with trespass. He alleges that the defendants have been in the practice of driving their carts across his lot going to and from the river. The Alderman asked the defendants why such conduct? They responded that Mr. Duffy ordered them to do so, and to keep going there as long as they could see the horses' ears for the mud, and they would have to obey orders, even if Mr. D. should order them to drive through the Alderman's office. The parties were reprimanded and discharged.

Alleged Burglar Discharged.—Wm. Patch, charged before the Mayor with having been one of the burglars who entered the residence of Felix Laverty, on the night of January 30th, had a hearing yesterday afternoon at four o'clock and was discharged. Mr. Laverty saw a man in his room and judged him to be about Patch's size, and was spoken to subsequently by a man in the hall, and thought he recognized the voice as Patch's. No other witnesses appeared.

A Further Clue.—Among the baggage of Maguire, the alleged burglar arrested on Monday, was a pair of boots stolen a short time since from Mr. John Moorhead. The boots were identified by Mr. Moorhead as his, Mr. Perry, of Wood street, identified them as the pair he had made for Mr. M. The name had been written on the inside of each boot top, but had been scratched out. This is a still further and more positive proof of guilt on Maguires part.

Took the Benefit.—Archibald Gilbreath, committed in default of the money to pay the costs in a fornication and bastardy case, was yesterday released from jail under the Insolvent act, having been confined three months.

Large Funeral.—Father William Byrne, who died at Corry on Sunday last, was followed to the grave by about 1,500 people. Father Byrne was a native of Kerry, Ireland.

Released.—Michael Kneeland and Patrick Dennigan, committed to jail by Alderman Taylor for malicious mischief, yesterday got bail and were released.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
TUESDAY, March 26, 1867.

The following are the New York stock quotations for to-day: Gold, 134; 1881 bonds, 108¾; Five Twenties, old, 108¾; Five Twenties, '65, 107⅝; do new, 106⅞; Seven Thirties, 105⅛. Michigan Southern Railroad, 77; Cleveland and Pittsburgh, 79⅝; Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago, 95⅛; Erie, 58; Chicago and Northwestern, 35⅛; do preferred, 64⅞; New York Central, 106; Chicago and Rock Island, 96¾.

—The course of the premium on gold has been steady, the range of fluctuations having been about one point for the week. The Treasury appears to be steadily following the policy of selling a portion of its daily receipts, so as to cause the drain upon the banks for customs duties to be lightly felt. This has the effect of counteracting a circulation, and of keeping the market steady. The present rates of exchange are too low to admit of any important shipment of gold, even in the shape of bars. On the 1st of May about $24,000,000 becomes payable by the Treasury on account of interest on 5-20 bonds. Of this amount about $10,000,000 is due to foreign holders; and supposing that no portion of their share should be reinvested in additional bonds—a supposition not consistent with experience—there would remain $14,000,000 of coin to go into the banks. The anticipation of this new supply has a tendency to keep the premium down.

—The Controller of the Currency has revised and much enlarged the quarterly reports to be made under the banking law, and will now get all the facts necessary to estimate, not only their solvency, but the kind of business they call banking. In view of the frauds recently developed in various parts of the country, he has not been too thorough, nor can he be too prompt in sending a special agent to any institution which shows any disposition to retain in the smallest details the facts called for.

—The next quarterly report of the National banks will be made on the 1st proximo. The section of the law referring to this matter is in the following language.

"Every association shall make to the Comptroller of the Currency a report, according to the form which may be prescribed by him, verified by the oath or affirmation of the President or Cashier of such association, which report shall exhibit in detail, and under appropriate heads, the resources and liabilities of the association before the commencement of business on the morning of the first Monday of the months of January, April, July and October of each year."

From this it will be seen that the statement is not to cover the average of the condition of the banks for the entire quarter preceeding the statement, but for the morning of the day on which it is made. This being the case, after what has recently taken place among the banks, the next quarterly statement will be looked to with more than usual interest.

—The last failure of a banking house in New York, though said to be exaggerated, we understand has inflicted loss on a large number of houses in that city. Parties in Boston and in this city are also reported losers. The business of the failing house was not so entirely in United States securities as was at first reported, but in stocks and gold. It matters little what the speculations were in, the result proves bankruptcy may be as readily reached through Governments and gold as by dealing in less valuable securities. The danger is in parties loading themselves with more than they can carry, thus putting their ventures at the mercy of the first adverse current in the money market.—Phila. Ledger.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
TUESDAY, March 26, 1867.

The produce markets were a little more active to-day than yesterday, though there is still plenty of room for improvement. The arrivals of Flour, Grain, and some other articles we might mention, are again on the increase, but the demand keeps pace with the supply, and, generally speaking, prices are maintained.

GRAIN—Wheat is in demand, and in limited supply; sale of 1 car No. 2 Spring at $2.85—No 1 is quoted at $2.85 to $2.90. Oats firm but unchanged—54 to 55, on track, and 55 to 58, in store. Corn is firm, and may be quoted at 73 to 75 for Ear, and 78 to 80, for prime Shelled—sale of 70 bush Ear, on wharf, at 75. Barley is in demand, with sales of good to prime Spring at $1 to $1,10. ALLEGHENY CATTLE MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
TUESDAY, March 26, 1867.

CATTLE.

The supply of cattle was considerably larger than last week, reaching about nine hundred head, and with a diminished demand, the market was a dull one, though prices were maintained. The demand for shipment was light, there being but few Eastern buyers in attendance, and the butchers bought very sparingly, not taking as many as usual, and, consequently, a large number of cattle were left over unsold. Good to choice fat cattle, such as our best butchers are accustomed to buying, sold at from 8 to 8¾, gross, and fair to medium at 7 to 7¾. There is a continued fair demand for stock cattle, and we continue to quote at 5¾ to 6¾, as to quality and condition. Barney Grey was on hand this week and, we presume, would have bought several car loads for New York, but he was unable to get good cattle at prices he considered himself safe in paying. Myers & Needy shipped several car loads to Baltimore.

SHEEP.

There is a continued good demand for this class of stock, and if anything, prices are a shade higher. Haas & Kraus sold 100 head to Wm. Reis at $8 per head; and 17 at $9. John Reed sold, to same buyer, 51 good Washington county Sheep at 8½ per pound. James Shaw sold Ryan & Christy 148 head Lawrence county Sheep at 7½. Eckert sold 35 head at 8.

HOGS.

The demand for Hogs continues light, and while the market is steady prices remain unchanged, ranging from 7½ to 8½, gross, according to quality and condition. Taylor sold 54 head to Emerick & Co. at 7¾; and Pulidier sold 56 head stock Hogs to same buyer at 6¾. Emerick & Co. report having retailed about 150 head at 7½ to 8½.

REPORTED SALES OF CATTLE.

Lafferty & Glass retailed 19 head for Heyl at 4½ to 8¼; 22 head on their own account, at 5 to 7½—55 left over. Verner & Hartman retailed 39 head at 7¾ to 8½. Blackstock & Hazlewood retailed 40 head at 7½ to 8½. 50 head left over. Haas & Kraus, 54 head, including 18 for W. McFadden, at 7¼ to 8¼. R. Wilson, 7 at 5 to 8,00. Carr & McAllister, 54 head of Iowa cattle for Wm. Ovendorf at 6½ to 8. J. W. Hawthorne sold 25 head to Myers & Co. at 6¾ to 7½. H. Martin sold 19 head to Greenwald & Kahn at 7½. T. Taylor, 1 head at 5¾ to 8¼. Myers & Needy, 117 head at 5 to 8¼. Greenwald & Kahn, 78 at 7 to 8¼. Merrick & Doud to Myers & Co. 38 at 8. L. Rothchilds, 24 head at 7½ to 8. Marks & Traurman 57; L. Shamberg, 17.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
TUESDAY, March 26, 1867.

CRUDE—The market continues dull, and to some extent neglected, but prices remain unchanged, and there is no apparent pressure, on their side, to buy or sell. We can report a sale of 4000 bbls, for April, (40 to 46 gravity) at 6¾, and 55 bbls "Smith's Ferry," on the spot, at 6½, bbls returned. We have no late advices from Oil City, but the eastern news is by no means very encouraging, and the same is true of the cable reports from Europe. The receipts of oil continue very light, and no material improvement need be looked for until there is more water.

REFINED—But a single sale of bonded oil reported to-day—2000 bbls, prime light straw to white; 500 for August; 500 for September; 500 for October, and 500 for November—all at 29. For spot oil there is some inquiry, and in the absence of sales, we continue to quote standard white at 22, on cars here, and 28, delivered in Philadelphia. For April, sales could probably be effected at 27½. Free Oil is quiet and unchanged; sale of 75 bbls at 40.

RIVER NEWS.

The river was apparently at a stand last evening with nine feet in the channel. The weather continues cloudy and cold, with indications of snow. Business was moderately active at the landing yesterday, the offerings of freight being more liberal, but there is still plenty of room for improvement.

SPECIAL NOTICE TO SHIPPERS.—The Argosy will leave Pittsburgh regularly every Wednesday for Cincinnati, giving through receipts to Louisville, Nashville, Memphis, New Orleans and all points on the Kanawha river, at the lowest current rates, making connection at Point Pleasant and Gallipolis with Kanawha packets, and at Cincinnati with all the other regular packets for points above mentioned. L. Vandergrift, Captain; W. H. Scott, clerk.

The Argosy got in from Cincinnati last night with a big trip, and will return again to-day as usual. The Maggie Hays, Capt. Hendrickson, is the regular packet for Saturday.

The Luella, Capt. Hazlett, will positively leave for the Upper Missouri gold regions on Saturday, and passengers and shippers can rely on this, and act accordingly.

The Columbia, from Nashville, arrived about noon yesterday with a good trip of miscellaneous freight. She has been a little over thirty days making the round trip, and having had to encounter bad weather and high waters, she was out probably several days longer than she would otherwise have been.

The Dubuque made a short trial trip on Monday, after which she came up to the main landing, and is now loading for Saint Louis and the Upper Mississippi. She is certainly a very fine boat, and will be quite an acquisition to the Northern Line, to which Company she belongs.

The following additional towboats have departed for below: Tigress, for Memphis, with five barges and two boats; Dart, for Louisville, with six barges and two flats, and the Whale, for Cincinnati, with eight barges. If the water will admit of it, the A. J. Baker, Lion and Coal City will probably get out to-day. Reports from the Lower Ohio and along the Mississippi report coal scarce.

The Glasgow, Capt. Johnston, of the "Express Line," is filling up rapidly for Saint Louis and Missouri river, and will be ready to take her departure this evening. The Glasgow offers superior accommodations to passengers. The Bellevernon, Captain Darragh, is next in turn after the Glasgow.

The Kenton, Capt. Dunlan, will be the first boat out for New Orleans, and the R. C. Grey, Capt. Wm. Anderson, is up for Cincinnati and Louisville. The Leclaire, Capt. J. G. Saint, is announced for the Upper Missouri gold regions.

The Sherman, enroute from Pittsburgh to St. Louis, passed Cincinnati on Sunday, full of passengers and freight. The Kate Putnam and Ezra Porter were advertised to leave Cincinnati for Pittsburgh on Monday. The Armenia, en route from New Orleans to Pittsburgh, was at Cairo on Sunday last.

The St. Louis Democrat, of Friday, says: A whisper is heard of cutting under in rates to the mountains; of a boat having agreed to take a load at 8 cts per pound; a rumor that the rates to posts on the Upper Missouri under the government contract, believed by some to have been awarded at Washington to Wm. M. McPherson, of this city, averages less than 5 cents per pound; and there is a number of boatmen whose opinion is entitled to consideration, who aver that even 9 or 10 cents per pound is not enough. Some of our most experienced mountain boatmen predict low water in the Upper Missouri this year. At all events, about dozen steamers are hourly receiving freight shipments for Fort Benton and the mines.

The Louisville Courier, of Saturday, says: The Simpson Horner and N. J. Bigley have arrived from Pittsburgh with tows of coal. The former, after taking her tow over the falls, went back to Pittsburgh with a fleet of empty barges in tow.

GREAT REPUBLIC ITEMS.—The Madison Courier, of Friday, says:

The Great Republic passed down about seven o'clock this morning. A large number of our citizens lined the river bank to watch her pass. She made no display whatever. Her chimneys and jack staff were still down.

The New Albany Ledger, of Friday, says: The Great Republic looked like a huge ark as she rounded the point. This great steamer which has been the theme of river editors along the Ohio and Mississippi rivers during the past six or eight months, arrived this morning. We went on board and were shown through her by Mr. Harry M. Miller, of the Cincinnati Commercial. Her cabin is certainly the most magnificent piece of work ever turned out on the Western waters. It is constructed after the style of the North River steamer Dean Richmond. The furniture is of the most elaborate and costly finish, corresponding in every particular with the surroundings. While the inside view is most elegant, we can not say as much for her outside appearance. It looks heavy, cramped, and decidedly rough. Any steamboatman could tell at a glance that she was built at Pittsburgh. Yet he would doubt his conjecture should he examine the inside cabin first.

The New Albany Commercial, of Saturday, says:

THE GREAT REPUBLIC.—What an appropriate name! The largest and finest boat ever built in the United States, and probably the finest in the world. Three hundred and thirty-five feet long, and ninety-five broad, and a depth of hold ten and a feet, she sits upon the water like some half vast palace upon the brink of a lake or the sea. But her magnificence is not appreciated, till you enter the great cabin, two hundred and seventy feet long and twenty-eight feet wide, with its double row of columns, carved and glittering with gold. These columns, seventy-two in number, separate the cabin from the promenade on either side. The ceiling or canopy is so arched, carved and ornamented with fret-work, landscape paintings and gold ornaments, as to present the beauty and magnificence of a gorgeous dream of a fairy palace. No words can describe its effect. The imagination can not picture its beauty, till it is seen. Every thing is in proportion. All the colors and forms are so blended as to produce the happiest effect. The vast mirrors, the seventy-two landscape paintings and columns, the canopied doors, the fine furniture, the perspective appearance of the velvet carpet, the ten rich, gorgeous, golden chandeliers, at regular intervals, the circular and open office, all present a beauty, harmony and magnificence no where else seen. Our space forbids going into a full description. May her prosperity keep pace with the prosperity of the Great Republic for which she was named.

The Louisville Democrat, of Sunday, says:

THE GREAT REPUBLIC.—We paid this mammoth and costly steamer a visit yesterday. She is at Portland, and will leave there to-day for Cairo, Memphis, Vicksburg and New Orleans. We were not very favorably impressed with the general outside appearance, for the wheel houses are set so far back as to mar the beauty of her. However, we soon forgot how she looked outside when we entered her cabin. There we found something elegant in all its apartments. [illegible]

LARGE SALE OF

KANSAS LANDS,

ON TUESDAY, THE 2d DAY OF APRIL, 1867, will be offered

AT PUBLIC SALE.

At the Eldridge House,

IN THE CITY OF

Lawrence, Kansas,

ABOUT 155,000 ACRES OF LAND,

Situate in the Counties of LEAVENWORTH, WYANDOTTE, JEFFERSON and DOUGLASS, and known as the

"Delaware Reserve."

These lands are directly on the main line of the UNION PACIFIC RAILWAY, EASTERN DIVISION.

The Branch of the same ROAD FROM LEAVENWORTH TO LAWRENCE PASSES THROUGH THEM, and the railroad from St. Louis to Leavenworth runs along their eastern border.

IN FERTILITY, LOCATION AND ABUNDANCE OF TIMBER AND WATER, these lands are the FINEST IN THE STATE.

By the treaty with the Delawares in 1860 the Indian title to the "Reserve" was extinguished, and since that date many farms have been improved, and churches, school houses, grist and saw mills erected, and many other improvements made thereon.

The climate of Kansas is remarkably healthy, and to farmers and settlers these lands offer

Greater Inducements than any Others in the West.

Also, at the same place, immediately after the disposition of the above lands, will be sold about

28,000 ACRES OF LAND,

Situate in the Southeastern part of the "SAC AND FOX RESERVE," in the county of Franklin, Kansas.

Also, a large number of TOWN LOTS AND BLOCKS in the towns of NORTH LAWRENCE, TONGANOXIE and PERRY.

The sale will commence on April 2d, 1867, and will continue from day to day until all the lands above named have been disposed of. The lands will be offered in tracts to suit purchasers.
